

Designer: MING THEIN

This image is from the project "The Texture of Color": an exploration of the quotidian to find aesthetic harmony in the form of abstracted shape and color in daily subjects. Images were shot over a period of several years around the world; some are elements of well-known or famous subjects; others are much more familiar or mundane. Yet all have been elevated to an equal level through the rigorous objectivity of the artist: everything is but light and color.

Printed on archival canvas and individually signed by the artist; edition of 50.
