The name Kwords means one thousand words. The Kwords Cup depicts only one of thousands of Chinese characters, but also represents the astronomical significance the Chinese alphabet has on culture, society, and geography. This design sculpted in bone china is simple yet profound. It is a dedication to the medium of enlightenment and education. It is literature to be held in your hand, quite literally.

In addition to the appreciation for classical literature that the Kwords Ru Ware Cup inculcates, it also pays homage to an extremely rare type of Chinese pottery from the Song dynasty (Ru Ware) in its light sky blue materiality.
