

Designer: TALKING TEXTILES

'Pisang Goreng' is Malay for fried banana.

"Over the years, that I've been living here in Singapore, I've gone on a few road trips into Malaysia. One of the fun things that we like to do is to pull over on the roadside at one of the Pisang Goreng stands for a quick snack. While these kinds of pop-up stands are not as common in Singapore, this is still a well known dessert here," shares the artist.

This artwork captures fun and quirky everyday scenes. The menu is photographed from a signboard at a food court. On it, you see the many ways that Pratas can be served - egg prata, cheese prata, and, of course, banana prata.

The Shophouse in this case is not a residential one but rather represents a famous eating spot found in the artist's neighborhood.

This canvas print is a digital reproduction of an original artwork by Deborah McKellar.

Dimensions:

Small

Framed: L48 x W74 x H4 cm

Unframed: L34 x W60 x H5 cm

Large

Framed: L61 x W94 x H4 cm

Unframed: L47 x W80 x H5 cm

Primary Material: Canvas

Primary Color: Yellow

Available Variants: Product Size:
(Small, Large) Product & Packaging:
(Framed, Unframed)

Customization: For Framed: Different frames + backing colors may be chosen.