

Designer: TANCHEN STUDIO

Inspired by nature's beauty and vastness, this collection of textiles seeks to capture the irregular contours and colors of the desert. Gradients converge in each rug: hues melting into each other through transitional shades.

The collection focuses on using subtle tints and tones to create a mirage of shadow and depth in each composition, like light reflecting on the sand. The gradual diffusion of colors evokes a sense of calm, almost like the feeling of walking barefoot amongst quiet dunes at twilight.
