

Designer: THIS IS ABORIGINAL ART

Clarise Tunkin's painting depicts the aboriginal dreamtime story of a spiritual ancestor named Malilu who lived in a cave.

Clarise's painting depicts this cultural story from a topographic point-of-view as she shows aspects of Malilu's daily life. Clarise comes from a lineage of famous Aboriginal artists, and like her family from whom she learnt the art, Clarise uses thousands of painted dots skilfully placed across the canvas to illustrate this important story.

Dimensions: L150 x W97 x H2 cm

Primary Material: Linen

Primary Color: Red

Customization: To commission a work by this artist, please contact cs@vermillionlifestyle.com.