

Designer: TASCHEN

From his Great (Bamboo) Wall house to the Japan National Stadium for the Tokyo Olympic Summer Games, originally planned for 2020, Japanese architect Kengo Kuma pioneered a truly sustainable approach to contemporary architecture, translating local craftsmanship and resources into a new tactile architecture. Discover the scope of his practice-defining oeuvre in this XXL monograph.

Dimensions: L39 x W30.8 cm

---

Primary Material: Paper

Primary Color: Multicolor

Customization: This product is not customizable.