

Designer: SAICHO

Designed to be served chilled in a champagne flute, SAICHO sparkling teas are the ideal alternative to champagne or prosecco for luxurious, but light lunches, paired with dinners, or as the perfect accompaniment to afternoon tea.

SAICHO comes in 3 expressions: Darjeeling, which has notes of mandarin, ginger and wood spice and gentle, dry tannins which makes it incredibly food friendly and an ideal accompaniment to grilled pork or a hearty lasagne. Hojicha, a roasted green tea from Japan, has a uniquely savory flavor making it the ideal pairing for steak and or oxtail soup. Jasmine, which is beautifully floral and has notes of fresh green apples, lychee, elderflower and of course jasmine. A touch of sweetness and the slightly chewy tannins make it a great alternative to Moscato d'Asti to accompany desserts like peach melba, elderflower jellies or panna cotta.

Contains 2 bottles of each flavor (6 bottles of 750ml).
