

Designer: TONG XINDI & SHEN TING

A series of oval ceramic panels that can be used as decorative wall pieces or tabletops, the patterns were inspired by Chinese ice-ray lattice and traditional weaving design, though Tong Xindi uses computer algorithms to generate variable patterns. These satin glaze mosaics provide a rich tactile sensation with two types of glazes painted on porcelain tiles - glossy glaze is used as the lattice while smooth satin glaze is used to fill closed areas.
