

Designer: THAMES & HUDSON

This is an overview of the top 100 leading young designers working across Asia, selected by the co-founders of one of Asia's foremost interior-design magazines, Design Anthology, based in Hong Kong. Featuring first-hand accounts from each designer, the book reveals their inspirations, collaborations and the challenges and opportunities presented as a young designer working in the region.

The book includes photography of each designer's work and will be a key resource for design professionals and enthusiasts, as well as all those interested in the contemporary Asian design scene.
