

Designer: TALKING TEXTILES

Peranakans were amongst the earlier settlers in Singapore. They were originally made up of a mix of Chinese, Malay, and Indonesian descendants.

This design features a Peranakan-style teapot, the Chinese characters for herbal tea or cooling tea (凉茶 liang cha), ornate Peranakan spoons, and phoenixes.

Hang on your oven railing, use as a tray cloth for your tea set, wrap your hot toast, muffins, and eggs to keep warm, or use the tea towel to dry your dishes.

Dimensions: L60 x W40 cm

Primary Material: CottonCustomization: This product is not customizable.