

Designer: MENUHA

The Lava Stone diffuser flaunts a minimalistic style and intriguing look.

Schopenhauer is inspired by the story of the great philosopher, seen as the artist's philosopher on account of the inspiration his aesthetics has provided to artists of every typology. He is also known as the philosopher of pessimism, as he articulated a worldview that challenges the value of existence.

Notes: Eucalyptus, mint, rime, cinnamon.

The volcanic lava stones are encased in an expertly crafted copper container.

The scents created by Menuha are inspired by stories from classic literature, film, and music.
