

Designer: LOUISE HILL DESIGN

The design brings together a colorful uplifting celebration of the traditional Singaporean shop house with a nod to the vibrant daily street life in Singapore. Louise is constantly inspired by the architectural delights that Singapore has to offer. These exquisite heritage shop houses, often pastel candy-colored and adorned with “jewels” of decorative plaster work, are an iconic part of the city.

This print features some of Louise's' most loved personal favorites such as The Alchemist, a boutique coffee company. Another ‘Hill family favorite’ is the old bicycle repair shop that sits around the corner from Koon Seng Road, which features famous candy-colored chophouses, one of which used to be the Hill residence.

To add more layers of detail, Louise had sprinkled this print with other imagery she adores, such as the little embroidered clouds and exotic birds in the sky taken from vintage fabric, the iconic Singaporean Rose Brand Syrup which has beautifully bright packaging, and the pretty bougainvillea which can be found everywhere across Singapore.

Louise's highly-detailed prints are a delight to explore, and yield new discoveries on every perusal.
